Description

Built by the renowned Andrews Boat Builders of Bourne End, the iconic Andrews Slipper Stern Launch is still a sight to behold cruising the River Thames. Built in 1938 boat number 161 is a beautiful Slipper Stern Launch that has undergone a major overhaul in recent years and looks as magnificent as when this was original completed. The deck varnish is in very good condition complimented by the many chrome deck fittings and the painted sides and boot line although show very small signs of wear, complement the crafts excellent condition. Powered by a Morris Verdette MK-V petrol engine she slides through the water with grace and ease. The fully fitted and well finished interior includes 2x chairs, a rear bench seat with cushions, flag pole and flag, wooden boat hook, ropes and fenders. Wenonah includes an up to date 'Boat Safety Certificate'. Fitted with a sliding roof cockpit canopy and all over cover with frame to protect the boat from the elements, Wenonah is ready for some new adventures!
